ORDER

AND NOW, this ______ day of October, 2005, it is hereby ORDERED that the Motion in Limine to Preclude the Introduction of Evidence of Special or Consequential Damages filed by defendant Central Transport International, Inc. is GRANTED. Plaintiff Accu-Spec Electronics Services, Inc. may not introduce any evidence of special or consequential damages in connection with its claim against Central Transport, including invoices for transporting its machinery to England and invoices for transporting an engineer from England to inspect the machinery, as plaintiffs has failed to provide or identify any evidence that notice of such damage was given to Central Transport at the time the bill of lading was executed.
